

How does Book Bingo work?

- This version of Book Bingo is designed for readers in grades 5 & 6.
- Read a variety of titles that fit descriptions on the Bingo card to complete an entire row – up and down, across, or diagonally – for Bingo.
- Write the title in the corresponding square and the date you completed the book.
- You will be awarded a ticket to the Carmel Cinema for each Bingo completed, for a maximum of five tickets for a Blackout Card (all squares completed).

The details:

- You are on your honor to read books before adding them to your Bingo Card. Only add books read between February and April 2017.
- Each book you read can only be used in one bingo square.
- Bingo will run February 9, 2017 through April 30, 2017 or as long as movie ticket supplies last.
- Reed Library employees and trustees are not eligible.

A Book Whose Call Number Matches Your Birthday (or comes close)

Call numbers identify where a book belongs on the shelf and help to keep books about the same topic together. The little white label on the bottom of each book show the call number.

To find a call number that matches your birthday, write your birthday out in numbers. For example May 8 could be written 5/08. The call number would be 508. Books with call number 508 are about nature. November 4 could be written 11/4. The call number would be 114. Books with call number 114 are about space. April 23 could be written 4/23. The call number would be 423. Books with call number 423 are about words, like dictionaries.
