Checking In...

ANNUAL REPORT

In 2019...

38,000+ visits were made to REED LIBRARY last year.

Storytimes provide early literacy and learning skills, essential for future school success.

192 new library users received library cards!

7,842 individuals attended 629 programs.

Visitors signed into our wireless network 8,523 times

Public computers were used 3,820 times in the library.

Library users downloaded over 8,000 eBooks, movies, music, and audio-books.

33,000+ items were loaned including books, music, museum passes, movies, and magazines.

Reed Memorial Library Carmel, NY

The library offers for loan a large selection of the latest books, CDs, DVDs, magazines, audio books, eBooks and museum passes as well as streaming and downloadable video, music, magazines and audio books.

Visitors to the library fax, copy, access our wi-fi, sign on to public computers, read the paper, take a class, pick up books, borrow a museum pass, and so much more...

We host a continuous schedule of programs and special events targeting literacy enhancement and community learning.

In 2019...

- Paint Parties were held to support the library's art classes
- Movie Nights and TED talks added to evening programming
- Instagram added to our social media presence
- We participated in the Great Give Back to help The Putnam/Northern Westchester Women's Resource Center
- We met Muldoon - children love reading to him!

- The layout and functionality of the children's room was improved
- A popular weekly movement class added (defying the assumption that we were too small to host exercise classes!)
- A new on-line calendar and on-line program registration
- All public computers were upgraded to Windows 10
- A kiosk was added for self-registration and library catalogue access

Thank you for a great year!
